SUPERVISORS DO NOT PLAN AX IN CITY JOBS NOW

Petrie and McClennan Also Make Denial of Yarn Published in Morning Paper

"The board of supervisors is not going to make any change in city department heads now," said Supervisor Pacheco this morning when asked as to the results of the political meeting Wednesday night of which he was chairman.

"The story published this morning that we are going to dismiss Fire Chief Thurston and others is not correct. But then we don't expect to get a square deal from the Honolulu papers any more."

"What McClennan and Petrie did say at the meeting was that if they were reelected they would get in line with the party organization and stand by the Democratic endorsements on the matter of city employees and in the distribution of patronage. They said that they realize now that in keeping some Republicans in office and refusing to displace them for Democrats they had lost the support of the Democrats and had gained nothing from the Republicans. They say that if reelected they will stand by what the party wants."

The meeting on Wednesday night was held to plan the fall campaign and it is understood that the Democrats will make a strong appeal for support with the idea in view of delivering good jobs to the faithful.

Supervisors Lester Petrie and William H. McClennan flatly deny the yarn published this morning that they had promised the Democrats to oust four municipal employees within the next 10 days, the men named in the story being Fire Chief Charles Thurston, Building Inspector Charles Murasky, City and County Electrician W. L. Fraxee and Meat Inspector W. T. Monsarrat.

"It's another of those fragments of imagination, rather cleverly drawn I'll admit, but without a scintilla of truth. The yarn has its purpose, of course. It was inspired, I believe, to discredit Petrie and myself in the eyes of the voters. I think I know who inspired it, and if I am right he is comparable to the yellow cur which bites the hand that feeds him."

"What Petrie and I gave the Democrats at our little meeting last Wednesday evening was a pledge of party loyalty; the promise that if re-elected we would accept the recommendations of the county committee in the matter of appointments—provided, however, that the men recommended are found efficient and qualified for the jobs."

"We made no promise to secure the discharge of the four men named in the story, and we have no intention of asking their discharge before the next election. The promise we made at the Wednesday meeting was only the same as we have made to the party in former campaigns, and has no greater significance."

Even if the Democratic supervisors wanted to discharge Fire Chief Thurston it is doubtful whether they could do so. In fact, Deputy City and County Attorney P. L. Weaver, in an opinion rendered yesterday afternoon at the request of City and County Clerk David Katschewski, holds that the fire chief is beyond the reach of the supervisors, because he is under the civil service commission.

Weaver holds that Fire Chief Thurston is an employee, and as such is under the control of the civil service commission, subject to the limitations of the civil service commission act, particularly under sections 6, 7 and 9 of that statute. Weaver says:

"The chief engineer of the fire department is an employee of the city and county. His employment is based upon an appropriation for his salary and his holding of the position."

"I know of no ordinance or statute creating any such office or defining its duties. He is, however, an employee of the county, whose duties have become known as the duties of the chief of the fire department. His position is recognized in the building ordinance, wherein he is given certain duties."

"Section 3 of the act relates to the employment of persons employed in the fire department."

"Section 6 limits the power to discharge employees."

"Section 7 regulates promotions; and of an examination for persons employed in the fire department on April 4, 1912, when the act went into effect."

"Section 7 has been construed in Kamahu vs. Bicknell, 22 Haw., so that the word 'promotion' in line 7 is a risk on out, as having no meaning."

"Section 9 forbids the commission to require an examination of any person employed in the fire department at the time the act was passed."

"Therefore, the present chief of the fire department is exempt from the rules. Any chief of the fire depart-

CHORUS GIRLS WILL PARTICIPATE IN PRIZE WINNING CONTEST AT BIJOU THEATER TONIGHT; JACK MAGEE COMPANY GIRLS TO COMPETE

Those taking part in chorus girls contest: 1—Doris Emerson; 2—Flo Emerson; 3—Queenie Yack; 4—Katherine Shepard; 5—Helen LeCain; 6—Mary Godsey; 7—Ruth Jenzard; 8—Grace Cornell; 9—Lillian Harding; 10—Evelyn Shaw.

Sh-h-h-h! This is absolutely confidential and if there should be a leak anywhere the deuce will be to pay!

Tonight is "chorus girls' contest" night at the Bijou theater in which the girls of the Jack Magee Musical Comedy Company will participate.

That has been advertised, but what is desired to be kept secret is what "stunt" the different girls will put on.

A cash prize will go to the girl who is proclaimed by the audience as the best entertainer and naturally all will strive for the money as well as the honor. Naturally also they do not wish their sisters to know what they are going to do.

Out at the beach hotel where the company is stopping there has been heard recently much song and melody from behind the dense hedges. The young women have tripped back and forth along the beach with fantastic dancing steps. It looked innocent enough and sounded the same but really it was the chorus girls' rehearsal for tonight's contest.

All 10 of the girls will put on a stunt but the amateur Sherlock Holmes who was put on to the case to ascertain just what each and every one would do could "get the goods" only on six.

Grace Cornell, who is one of the noted "Nut Sisters" of mainland vaudeville and who is mourning the absence of the other "Nut" who could not come to Honolulu, will sing "I Love the Ladies."

Helen LeCain, who was formerly prima donna of the Gaiety theater in San Francisco, will sing "Lover Bold."

Doris Emerson will sing "Bright Eyes" and give an original dance to which she has not given a name.

Cute little Mary Godsey will sing "Then Came That Stain." Queenie Yack will sing a ballad entitled "My Girl Sally." Lillian Harding will be heard in "Everybody in Town Loves My Girl." Evelyn Shaw will undoubtedly bring down the house in her rendition of "I've Got Everything I Want From You."

SOUTH AFRICANS PLAN FOR EXHIBIT

[By Latest Mail]

CAPE TOWN, South Africa.—J. B. G. Lester, the commissioner to South Africa on behalf of the Panama exhibition, who sailed from Cape Town recently, stated that he was highly gratified at the outcome of his visit to South Africa.

It is hoped that in addition to a display by the chamber of mines of a representative exhibit, and by De Beers of diamonds, there will be exhibits of ostrich feathers, wool, mohair, wattle bark and other agricultural products of the Union.

WAR CANNOT STOP IT.

Within three weeks after the European war was announced, the Netherlands cabled instructions to rush construction on the great Netherlands pavilion near the Palace of Fine Arts at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition; the first emissaries of English manufacturers who will take part in a collective display reached San Francisco the last week in August.

Some of the most costly and elaborate displays ever shown will be sent from Japan. Japan has ever made and that it will be completed in every detail upon the opening of the exposition. Argentine increased its appropriation from $1,300,000 to $1,700,000 gold. The millions who wondered how the war will affect the foreign participation at San Francisco will gladly have called to their attention the fact that during the Russo-Japanese war Japan made a magnificent display at St. Louis.

"The answer to your question is in the affirmative. The office comes under the power of the civil service commission, subject to the limitations set forth in Act 51."

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A meeting of the members of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee will be held in the rooms of the committee, Bishop street, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

A meeting of the members of Honolulu Lodge 616, B. P. O. E., will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the rooms of the lodge, King, near Fort street.

Oahu members of the Hawaiian Congregational Evangelical Association will meet at the Kaneohe Native church next Thursday. There will be several important business discussions and a full attendance is requested.

A program of vocal and instrumental music will be given this evening in the Methodist church, Beretania and Victoria streets, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. There will be no admission charge, but a collection will be taken for charity.

Two jury trials are on the trial calendar of the circuit court's criminal division for Monday. George Allen is scheduled for a hearing on a forgery charge and George R. Davis may go to trial on a charge of assault and battery upon an officer.

Ah Tim, Ah Choy and Ah Chong pleaded guilty before Judge Ashford this morning to a charge of having opium in their possession, and on the recommendation of Deputy City and County Attorney A. M. Brown were given a suspension of sentence for 12 months.

William D. Speckman, supervisor of the capitol grounds, has been asked for his resignation October 1 by Hon. J. H. Morgan.

All other Sigma Chi chapters are urged to send their representatives to the National Convention, to be held at the National Hotel, December 1-3, 1914.

perintendent C. R. Forbes of the public works department for the reason that the latter has "seen no improvement in the condition of the grounds." It is understood J. W. Cook, carpenter in the public works department, will succeed Speckman.

The number of applications for positions in the fire and police departments jumped yesterday from 21 to 64, all of whom have taken the physical examination and now await the intellectual test which is to be given at the McKinley high school tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock. From the number applying the indication is that the heads of the departments will have ample material from which to select men and fill all vacancies in the sheriff's office, the police department and the fire department.

The funeral services of Curtis J. Lyon, who died at his home on Dole and Alexander streets at 10:30 o'clock last night, are being held this afternoon from the pastor's study at Kawaiahao church. Interment will be in the Kawaiahao Mission cemetery. Mr. Lyon, who was a kamaaina and well-known throughout the islands, had been ailing for several years.

A. D. Larnach was elected president of the Men's League of the diocese of St. Andrew's cathedral at the annual meeting of that organization last night. Other officers elected were Dr. W. L. Moore, vice-president; Percy Deverill, secretary; John Lennox, treasurer, and Rev. Canon William Ault, W. A. Wall and William Thompson, directors. The meeting was well attended and several interesting reports were presented.

Spain jurors who had failed to read the daily papers and consequently did not know that no jury trials would be held in Circuit Judge Ashford's court until next Monday, appeared in court this morning for duty. They were told that they had been summoned for duty in a court case which it will be remembered on them in telephone the court had been discussing whether they are called before, neglecting their business to go to court.
